CENTER FOR DOMESTIC PEACE®
Working Together to End Domestic Violence

Press Release

CENTER FOR DOMESTIC PEACE OFFERS WORKSHOP ON GENDER BIAS

WHY: This past June, Center for Domestic Peace held a showing of the documentary film, The Mask You Live In, followed by a panel discussion with leading experts on male gender-role training. It was a powerful and inspiring event for the nearly 400 in attendance.

WHAT: To take the discussion of masculinity further, Center for Domestic Peace has partnered with the Anti-Defamation League to offer their A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE® Institute anti-bias workshop.

This interactive workshop, designed for adult participants, will include activities and discussions that examine and challenge gender bias within yourself, others, and institutions. Through this process, you will develop skills and awareness to support personal responsibility in the promotion of justice and equity as we all work toward respectful, inclusive, and safe communities.

Note: While The Mask You Live In will provide some context for dialogue, it is not necessary for participants to have seen the film.

WHEN: Wednesday, July 29, 2015 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

WHERE: Center for Domestic Peace, 734 A Street, San Rafael, CA 94901

COST: $20 per participant, Space is limited to 35 spots

TO REGISTER: email Erin Bove @ ebove@c4dp.og or call 415-526-2541

Contact: Marla Hedlund, Development and Community Relations Manager, Center for Domestic Peace (415) 526-2543.

About Center for Domestic Peace

Center for Domestic Peace mobilizes individuals and communities to transform our world so domestic violence no longer exists, creating greater safety, justice and equality. Home of Marin Abused Women's Services, Center for Domestic Peace was founded in 1977. Center for Domestic Peace has a comprehensive range of support services including: emergency shelter, short- and long-term transitional housing, advocacy, legal referrals, and programs that offer individuals concrete ways to end their violence. Visit www.centerfordomesticpeace.org