Enhancements to Marin's Coordinated Community Response to Domestic Violence

Domestic violence
	Governance Enhancements	Marin County Coordinated Community Response to Domestic Violence Network
1. 1	Inclusiveness	 Open to the public. Spanish interpretation. Membership criteria: any person or organization with the ultimate goal of reducing the number of DV crimes in Marin County, recognizing the application of California DV statues to the regulations and provisions of the USDOJ that promote emerging practices and solutions found to increase victim safety and batterer accountability. Disclosures
	Fransparency Shared	 Meetings open to the public. Public invited by press release and website postings. Agendas, minutes and schedules posted on host websites. Annual report will be generated. Agenda will be developed by the CCR Network hosts (DA and C4DP) with input from members four weeks in advance. Criminal justice team open. 1. CCR Network will practice consensus decision making and when necessary
	Decision-making	may vote, by majority present. 2. Participants will create mutually agreed upon expectations, responsibilities and goals.
4. 5	Strategies	Three Year Framework a) Engage in critical thinking and problem solving about prevention efforts, system gaps and responses to DV in Marin County, with consideration to the needs of victims, their children, offenders and cultural and linguistic responsiveness. b) Create interlocking prevention and intervention policies and procedures for all responders (criminal justice as well as practitioners, government and community-based), taking into account existing data, research, practice and evidence-based strategies. c) Transfer the work back to participant entities for integration and evaluation. d) Measuring effectiveness and community outcomes to determine if we are lowering the DV incident rate. Design to be determined.
5. 1	Leadership	 Hosted by Marin County District Attorney and Center for Domestic Peace. Rotating chairs for the criminal justice team, interagency team, joint session and any other committees or teams that form (selection and terms to be determined). Conflict prevention = openness to all voices heard. Respectfulness and responsibility for maintaining a positive well-functioning collaborative that is open to different perspectives. Healthy debate and disagreement avoids putdowns, verbal attacks, threats, minimizing and interrupting.
6. I	Location	1. Civic Center, Wellness Campus, other neutral locations?
