Center for Domestic Peace and Huckleberry Youth Programs present:

Teen Dating Violence Online and In-Person: Best Practices for Providers

Friday, October 26, 2012 • 9:30 am – 3:00 pm

Four Points by Sheraton, 1010 Northgate Drive, San Rafael, CA

Did you know that one in three teens in the U.S. is a victim of physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner?

Learn how to recognize and screen for teen dating violence, including abuse that may extend into online and mobile spaces; how to do age-appropriate risk assessment and safety planning that accounts for teens' unique needs; and what legal rights and responsibilities must be considered when working with teens.

Kelley Hampton, JD, MPP
Break the Cycle

Break the Cycle is the leading, national nonprofit organization working with teens to prevent and end domestic and dating violence, including initiatives such as Respect WORKS! and partnering with the National Dating Abuse Helpline to form LoveIsRespect and its National Youth Advisory Board.
