

ESTABLISH YOUR AGENCY'S DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESPONSE PROTOCOL AND SAVE LIVES

A two-part training on nationally acclaimed best practices.
Each session is 3 hours long

Part One: Assessor Training: How to Help Domestic Violence Victims and Their Children Be Safer ($900)

Part Two: Administrator Training: Putting it All Together For Your Agency: Training of Trainers ($900)

As a result of this training you will:

1. Develop your agency's domestic violence response protocol.
2. Identify the procedures your agency needs to implement the: a) Relationship Health Assessment and b) Rapid Risk Assessment protocols.
3. Receive specialized training for your designated employees on how to help survivors assess for the effects of domestic violence on their own as well as their children's health, and provide immediate guidance.
4. Track your agency's progress over time using baseline data.
5. Become a specialized domestic violence liaison to the Marin Coordinated Community Response to Domestic Violence Network

To Register: Contact Mira Greene at mgreene@c4dp.org

Trainers:

Kate Kain, Deputy Executive Director, Center for Domestic Peace

Luz Alvarado, Legal Systems Advocacy Program Manager, Center for Domestic Peace

George Bernheim, Detective, Investigative Division, Marin County Sheriff's Office